The Queenslander Pictorial.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF VICTORIA 21 SEP 1914

THE RULER OF THE BRAVEST PEOPLE IN EUROPE—ALBERT KING OF THE BELGIANS.

LIEUTENANT COLONEL H.W. LEE

(In command of the Queensland Infantry Battalion of the Australian Expeditionary Force) on the charger presented by Hon. A.H. Whitlingham M.L.C.

Taima. photo.

FLOCK OF GOATS FOR MILK AND MUTTON AT SUNNYSIDE, TOWNSVILLE.

Perroux. photo.

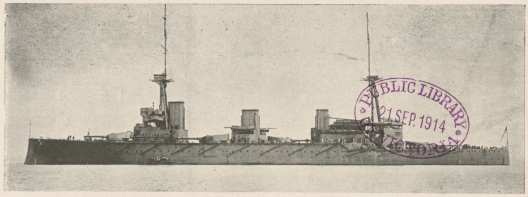
REAR-ADMIRAL SIR GEORGE PATEY,
Who had charge of the operations.

LIEUTENANT R. BOWEN,
Wounded in the attack on Rabaul.
—T. Mathewson photo.

CAPTAIN B. A. POCKLEY,
A.M.C.,
Killed in the attack on Rabaul,
New Britain.

OUR NEWEST POSSESSION.

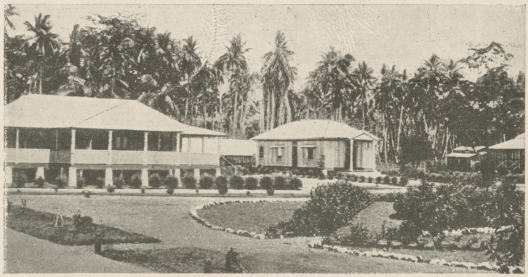
German New Guinea and the Bismarck Archipelago, Captured last week by a landing party from H.M.A.S. Australia.



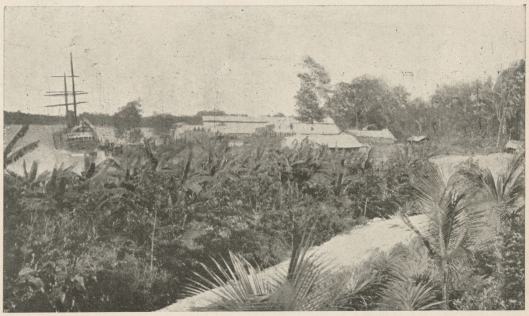
PUBLIC LIBRARY
21 SEP 1914
QUEENSLAND

H.M.A.S. AUSTRALIA.
Which landed the party to capture the German New Guinea headquarters.

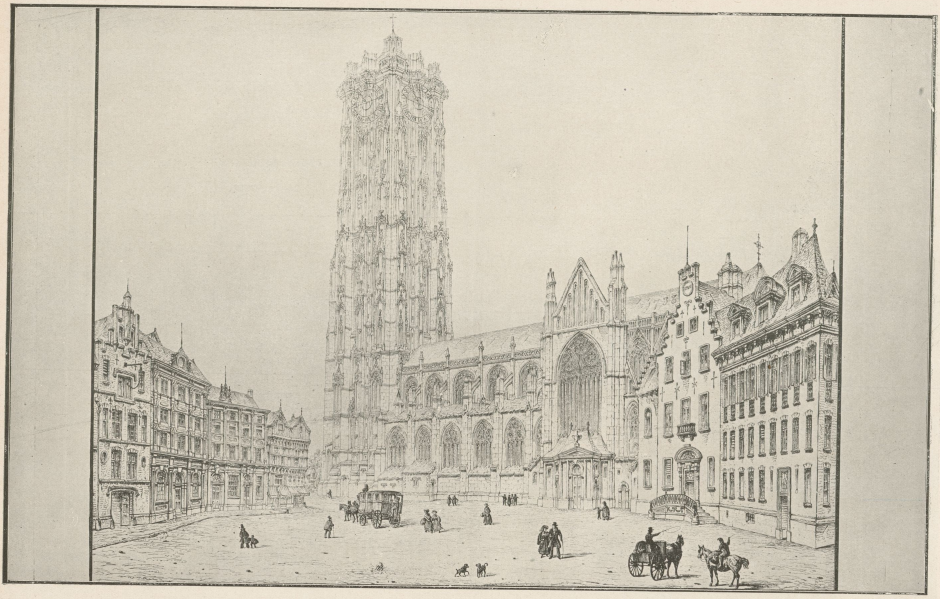
BLANCHE BAY, HERBERTSHOHE, NEW BRITAIN.



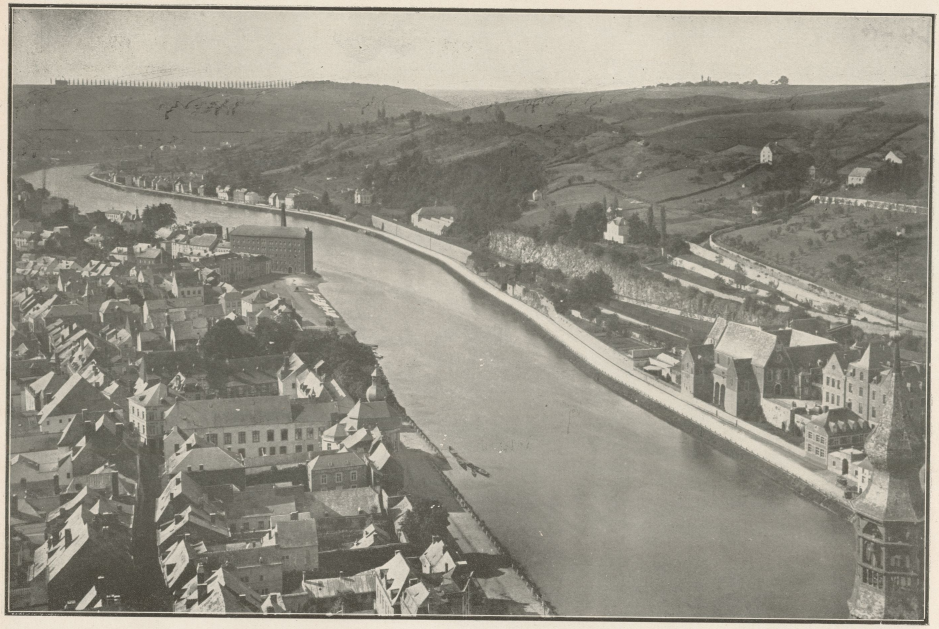
OFFICERS' QUARTERS AND MESS HOUSE AT A GERMAN TRADING STATION AT MATUPI, NEW BRITAIN.



FREDERICKWILHELMSHAVEN, GERMAN NEW GUINEA.



THE MAGNIFICENT CATHEDRAL AT MALINES (MECHLIN), BELGIUM, BOMBARDED BY THE GERMANS.



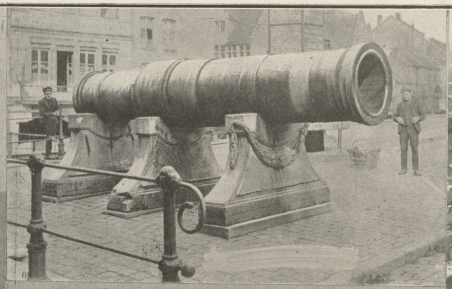
DINANT, ON THE MEUSE, BELGIUM, DESTROYED BY THE GERMANS.

—Photo lent by Mr. J. Bain.

Along the Track of the Invader.

The City of Ghent Ransomed from German Spoliation.

Photos. kindly lent by Mr. F. Robinson.



The great cannon of Ghent.

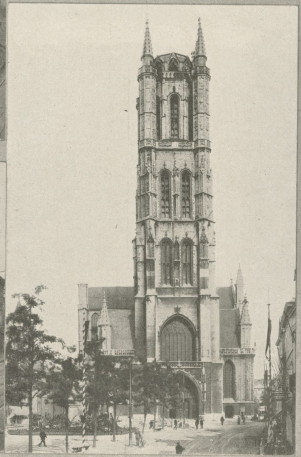
View from the Church of St. James.

General view, showing three church steeples.

View from the Quay of Herbes.

St. Nicholas' Church and Belfry.

The Place of St. Pharaïlde.



St. Bavon's Cathedral.

Patriotic Carnival at Davies Park

The Procession crossing Victoria Bridge to South Brisbane.

"Boys of the Bulldog Breed"
A Feature of the Procession.

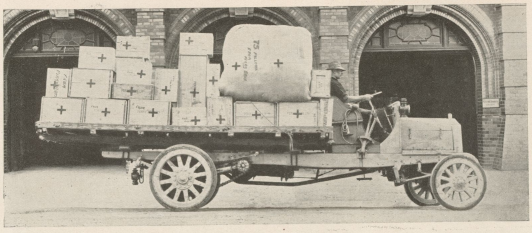
The Lieutenant-Governor hoisting the Union Jack.

The Cadet Guard-of-Honour.—At Ease

Pheils.—photo.

ENTERTAINING Y.M.C.A. SOLDIERS.
Send-off to members leaving with the Queensland Expeditionary Force at the Association Rooms, Edward-street.

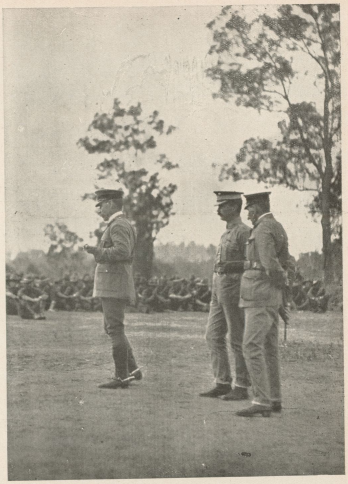
—H. S. Hamilton photo.



FULL EQUIPMENT (EXCEPT CLOTHING) FOR THE FIRST HOSPITAL TRAIN SENT.
Presented by Messrs. Perry Brothers, Limited, to the Red Cross Society for the Queensland quota of 2500 troops for the Australian Expeditionary Force. —Moss photo.

COMFORT FOR SOLDIERS.
Goods at the Red Cross Society's Brisbane head centre, Ann-street, Brisbane, ready for despatch to the military authorities. —Moss photo.

A NATIVE OF NEW BRITAIN.
Part of the territory captured from Germany by Australians.

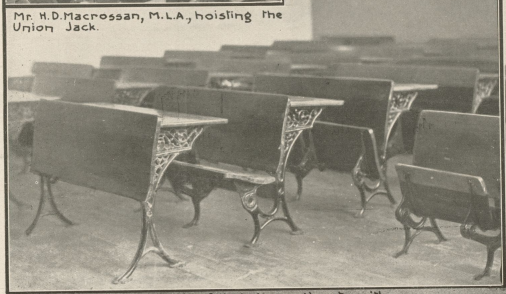


A VISIT FROM AN OLD FRIEND.
Lieut.-Colonel J. K. Forsyth addressing the Light Horse at Enoggera. With him are Lieut.-Colonel R. Stodart and Dr. Macartney. —Fegan photo.

OPENING A NEW STATE SCHOOL AT WOOLOOWIN

Hon. J.W. Blair (Minister for Education) declaring the school open.

Mr. H.D. Macrossan, M.L.A., hoisting the Union Jack.



The school is fitted throughout with these desks. KING ARNOLD - PHOTO.

Committee of the Wooloowin Progress Association, through whose efforts the school was erected.

DEBUTANTES OF 1914

Miss Earwaker (Brisbane). RUDDLE PHOTO.

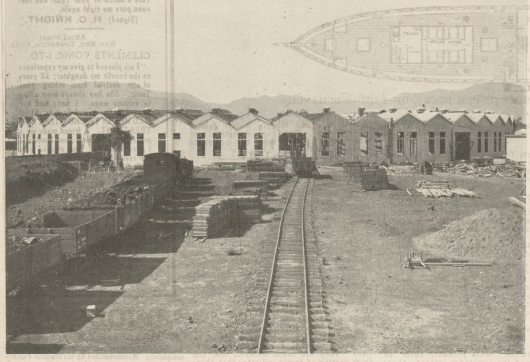
Miss Kathleen Landy (Ipswich). WHITEHEAD PHOTO.

Miss Hawthorn (Brisbane). EGAN PHOTO.

PUBLIC LIBRARY OF VICTORIA 21 SEP 1914

PATRIOTISM AT KINGAROY.
The procession passing through the main street.
—J. O'Neill photo.

THE WINNING SET AT A CHURCH OF ENGLAND FANCY BALL AT MORNINGSIDE.



THE NEW RAILWAY WORKSHOPS AT ROCKHAMPTON.
The round house from within, with the 60ft. turntable in the foreground.
—A. J. Smart photo.

FOUR GENERATIONS.
Mr. T. J. Collins, of Laidley (a veteran of the Indian Mutiny), with his son (Mr. T. K. Collins), grandson (Mr. F. C. Collins), and great-grandson (F. C. Collins, jun.).
—W. Reynolds photo.